

Pray for South Sudan

The Invitation, June 12, 2025

Since the beginning of 2025, South Sudan has experienced increasing violence. Many in the nation are afraid their country is sliding back toward civil war. That civil war, from 2013-2018, claimed the lives of more than 400,000 people. For YWAM Juba, South Sudan, the unrest has meant they have not been able to run their Discipleship Training School (DTS), but they hope to begin again with a DTS in July of this year. They continue evangelism, mercy ministry, working with children, women's ministry, and showing the Jesus Film. Recently they shared the gospel at a camp for displaced persons. Please take a moment to pray for South Sudan right now, and please also pray with us on June 12, the prayer day for YWAM's prayer initiative called The Invitation.

Topic suggested and written by Denis James in South Sudan. Photo of members of the YWAM team in Juba, South Sudan.

1. Pray for unity among the tribes of South Sudan. There are 64 tribes.
2. Pray for good leadership and governance among the South Sudanese politicians.
3. Pray for healing and reconciliation at all levels, from the top leadership to the citizens. Pray for the security situation to improve and that peace will be in the country and people's hearts.
4. Pray for YWAM's ministry in South Sudan, for people to come to faith and for practical needs to be met. Pray for their upcoming DTS. Pray also for God to use them to bring reconciliation and unity.

How We Prayed

Myanmar (April, 2025)

Praise God that YWAM teams have been able to help many people suffering from the Myanmar earthquake. Those teams have provided shelters, dug wells, have given trauma counseling, and have fed many people. Please continue to pray for the situation as the rainy season is starting and many still do not have shelter or clean water.

Join The Invitation. Sign up for prayer emails and find translations in many languages at ywam.org/theinvitation. Please contact us at prayer@ywam.org to let us know how you prayed, to recommend a prayer topic, or to request an advance copy of the prayer guide.
